Hon. Rod J. Rosenstein
Deputy Attorney General
U.S. Department of Justice
950 Pennsylvania Avenue NW
Washington DC 20530-0001

Dear Deputy Attorney General Rosenstein:

Common Cause requests that the Department of Justice exercise its authority to investigate whether Donald J. Trump, Donald J. Trump for President, Inc., the Trump Organization, Michael D. Cohen, Essential Consultants LLC and/or unknown persons (“John Doe”) violated reporting requirements and contribution limits and restrictions of the Federal Election Campaign Act (FECA), 52 U.S.C. § 30101, et seq.

Given Attorney General Sessions’ recusal from any investigations of any matters related in any way to the campaigns for President of the United States, we have not addressed this letter to the Attorney General.

The attached complaint, filed on this date with the Federal Election Commission (FEC), updates the complaints dated January 22, 2018 that Common Cause filed with the DOJ and FEC, and details the relevant facts establishing a reason to believe that:

1. A payment of $130,000 from Essential Consultants LLC to Ms. Stephanie Clifford in October 2016 was an unreported in-kind contribution to Donald J. Trump and Donald J. Trump for President, Inc., and an unreported expenditure by the committee—because the funds were paid for the purpose of influencing the 2016 presidential general election—in violation of the campaign finance reporting requirements established by 52 U.S.C. § 30104(b);
2. Michael D. Cohen made, and Donald J. Trump and Donald J. Trump for President received, an excessive in-kind contribution in violation of 52 U.S.C. § 30116(a)(1)(A);
3. Essential Consultants LLC made, and Donald J. Trump and Donald J. Trump for President received, an in-kind contribution in violation of 52 U.S.C. § 30116(a)(1)(A) and/or a corporate contribution in violation of 52 U.S.C. § 30118(a);
4. The Trump Organization facilitated a contribution to Donald J. Trump and Donald J. Trump for President, Inc., in violation of 11 C.F.R. § 114.2(f)(1) and 52 U.S.C. § 30118(a);

5. The Trump Organization made, and Donald J. Trump and Donald J. Trump for President received, an in-kind contribution in the form of reimbursement to Michael D. Cohen of the $130,000 paid to Ms. Clifford in violation of 52 U.S.C. § 30118(a); and
6. John Doe made, and Donald J. Trump and Donald J. Trump for President received, an in-kind contribution in the form of reimbursement to Michael D. Cohen of the $130,000 paid to Ms. Clifford in violation of 52 U.S.C. §§ 30116(a)(1)(A) or 30118(a).

Although the Federal Election Commission (FEC) has exclusive jurisdiction over civil enforcement of the campaign finance laws, 52 U.S.C. § 30109(a), the Department of Justice has its own separate responsibility to enforce the campaign finance laws against “knowing and willful” violations. 52 U.S.C. § 30109(d); see generally FEDERAL PROSECUTION OF ELECTION OFFENSES (7th ed. May 2007) (DOJ HANDBOOK).

The DOJ HANDBOOK takes particular note of the fact that Congress increased criminal penalties for campaign finance violations as part of the Bipartisan Campaign Reform Act of 2002 (BCRA). As the Handbook states, at pp. 198-99:

BCRA significantly enhanced the criminal penalties for knowing and willful violations of the Federal Election Campaign Act. BCRA did so in response to identified anti-social consequences, namely, corruption and the appearance of corruption arising from FECA violations, and their adverse effect on the proper functioning of American democracy....

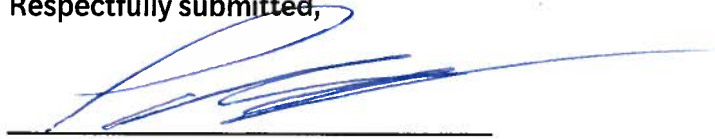

In view of the enhanced criminal penalties for FECA crimes and the legislative history supporting their enactment, it is the Justice Department’s position that all knowing and willful FECA violations that exceed the applicable jurisdictional floor specified in the Act’s criminal provision should be considered for federal prosecution....

The violations of federal campaign finance law alleged in the attached complaint undermine the integrity of democracy in the United States.

In addition to the violations of the Federal Election Campaign Act alleged in the attached complaint, the Department of Justice is responsible for enforcing 18 U.S.C. § 1001, which prohibits anyone in any matter within the jurisdiction of the executive branch of government from knowingly and willfully falsifying, concealing or covering up any material fact—i.e., prohibits a candidate for federal office from causing an incomplete or incorrect disclosure report to be filed with the FEC in order to cover up a material fact.

We urge the Department of Justice to investigate all possible violations of the Federal Election Campaign Act and other federal laws in this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

Common Cause, by

JOHN DOE, unknown person that reimbursed Michael D. Cohen for payment to Stephanie Clifford via Essential Consultants LLC

COMPLAINT (AMENDED)

1. This complaint is filed pursuant to 52 U.S.C. § 30109(a)(1) and is based on information providing reason to believe that Donald J. Trump, Donald J. Trump for President, Inc. (FEC I.D.#C00580100), the Trump Organization, Michael D. Cohen, Essential Consultants LLC and/or unknown persons (“John Doe”) violated reporting requirements and contribution limits and restrictions of the Federal Election Campaign Act (FECA), 52 U.S.C. § 30101, et seq. and Commission regulations.
2. Specifically, based on publicly available data and published reports, complainants have reason to believe that the payment of $130,000 from Michael D. Cohen through Essential Consultants LLC to Ms. Stephanie Clifford was an unreported in-kind contribution to Donald J. Trump and Donald J. Trump for President, Inc., and an unreported expenditure by Donald J. Trump and Donald J. Trump for President, Inc.—because the payment was made for the purpose of influencing the 2016 presidential general election and the payment was made by Donald J. Trump, or an employee and agent of Donald J. Trump (Michael D. Cohen), or in coordination with Donald J. Trump. See 52 U.S.C. §§ 30101(8)(A) (defining “contribution”), 30101(9)(A) (defining “expenditure”) and 30116(a)(7) (coordinated “expenditure” a “contribution”); see also 52 U.S.C. § 30104(b) (requiring reporting of “contributions” and “expenditures” by political committees).

3. Regardless of the source of the funds paid to Ms. Stephanie Clifford (including, e.g., if Donald J. Trump provided the funds), complainants have reason to believe that Donald J. Trump for President, Inc. failed to report its receipt of the $130,000 in-kind contribution and failed to report its $130,000 expenditure to Ms. Stephanie Clifford in violation of 52 U.S.C. § 30104(b).
4. Complainants have reason to believe that Michael D. Cohen made, and Donald J. Trump and Donald J. Trump for President, Inc. received, an excessive in-kind contribution in violation of 52 U.S.C. § 30116(a)(1)(A).
5. Complainants have reason to believe that Essential Consultants LLC made, and Donald J. Trump and Donald J. Trump for President, Inc. received, an excessive in-kind contribution in violation of 52 U.S.C. § 30116(a)(1)(A) or a corporate contribution in violation of 52 U.S.C. § 30118(a).
6. Complainants have reason to believe that the Trump Organization facilitated a contribution to Donald J. Trump and Donald J. Trump for President, Inc. in violation of 11 C.F.R. § 114.2(f)(1) and 52 U.S.C. § 30118(a).
7. Complainants have reason to believe that the Trump Organization made, and Donald J. Trump and Donald J. Trump for President, Inc. received, a corporate contribution in violation of 52 U.S.C. § 30118(a).
8. Complainants have reason to believe that John Doe made, and Donald J. Trump and Donald J. Trump for President, Inc. received, an excessive in-kind contribution in violation of 52 U.S.C. § 30116(a)(1)(A) or a corporate contribution in violation of 52 U.S.C. § 30118(a).

9. “If the Commission, upon receiving a complaint . . . has reason to believe that a person has committed, or is about to commit, a violation of [the FECA] . . . [t]he Commission shall make an investigation of such alleged violation” 52 U.S.C. § 30109(a)(2) (emphasis added); see also 11 C.F.R. § 111.4(a).
10. “A ‘reason to believe’ finding followed by an investigation would be appropriate when a complaint credibly alleges that a significant violation may have occurred, but further investigation is required to determine whether a violation in fact occurred and, if so, its exact scope.” FEC, Statement of Policy Regarding Commission Action in Matters at the Initial Stage in the Enforcement Process, 72 Fed. Reg. 12545 (March 16, 2007).

2017 interview as the “fix-it guy.”⁷ Mr. Cohen was an agent of Mr. Trump and the Trump Organization in October 2016.

18. According to the Wall Street Journal, Ms. Clifford has alleged that she had a sexual encounter with Mr. Trump in 2006 and “had been in talks with ABC’s ‘Good Morning America’ in the fall of 2016 about an appearance to discuss Mr. Trump.”⁸

19. This payment of $130,000 was part of a nondisclosure agreement by which Ms. Clifford would be precluded from publicly discussing the alleged sexual encounters between her and Mr. Trump.⁹

20. Although the alleged sexual affair between Mr. Trump and Ms. Clifford occurred in 2006, the nondisclosure agreement was reached less than one month before the 2016 Presidential election.¹⁰

21. The Wall Street Journal explained:

The agreement with Ms. Clifford came as the Trump campaign confronted allegations from numerous women who described unwanted sexual advances and alleged assaults by Mr. Trump. In October 2016, the Washington Post published a videotape made, but never aired, by NBC’s “Access Hollywood” in which Mr. Trump spoke of groping women.¹¹

22. On February 13, 2018, the New York Times reported that Mr. Cohen told the newspaper he “had paid $130,000 out of his own pocket” and that “[n]either the Trump Organization nor the Trump campaign was a party to the transaction with Ms. Clifford, and neither reimbursed [him] for the payment, either directly or indirectly[.]”¹²

23. On February 14, 2018, the Washington Post quoted Mr. Cohen’s statement, first reported by the New York Times, as:

I am Mr. Trump’s longtime special counsel and I have proudly served in that role for more than a decade[.] . . . In a private transaction in 2016, I used my own personal funds to facilitate a payment of $130,000 to Ms. Stephanie Clifford. Neither the Trump Organization nor the Trump campaign was a party to the transaction with Ms. Clifford, and neither reimbursed me for the payment, either directly or indirectly.¹³

24. In a February 14, 2018, follow-up story the New York Times reported that Mr. Cohen had told the newspaper that “he had used his own funds to facilitate the payment to the actress.”¹⁴ Mr. Cohen “declined to answer questions about whether Mr. Trump had reimbursed him [or] whether the two men had made any arrangement at the time of the payment[.]”¹⁵

25. On March 5, 2018, the Wall Street Journal reported that Mr. Cohen’s payment to Ms. Clifford was received by Ms. Clifford on October 27, 2016—12 days before the presidential election—and that “Mr. Cohen said he missed two deadlines earlier that month to make the $130,000 payment to Ms. Clifford because he couldn’t reach Mr. Trump in the hectic final days of the

26. On March 6, 2018, Stephanie Clifford filed a complaint for declaratory relief against Donald J. Trump and Essential Consultants LLC in California superior court in Los Angeles County, challenging the validity of the October 2016 nondisclosure agreement between Ms. Clifford, Essential Consultants LLC and Donald J. Trump—on the ground that Donald J. Trump had not signed the agreement.¹⁸
27. In the complaint, Ms. Clifford alleges that in October 2016, around the time that the Access Hollywood tape was made public, she “sought to share details concerning her relationship and encounters with Mr. Trump with various media outlets.”¹⁹
28. Ms. Clifford further alleges: “As a result of Ms. Clifford’s efforts aimed at publicly disclosing her story and her communications with various media outlets, Ms. Clifford’s plans came to the attention of Mr. Trump and his campaign, including Mr. Michael Cohen[.]”²⁰

After discovering Ms. Clifford’s plans, Mr. Trump, with the assistance of his attorney Mr. Cohen, aggressively sought to silence Ms. Clifford as part of an effort to avoid her telling the truth, thus helping to ensure he won the Presidential Election. Mr. Cohen subsequently prepared a draft non-disclosure agreement and presented it to Ms. Clifford²¹

29. According to Ms. Clifford’s complaint, Essential Consultants LLC “was created by Mr. Cohen with Mr. Trump’s knowledge for one purpose—to hide the true source of funds to be used to pay Ms. Clifford, thus further insulating Mr. Trump from later discovery and scrutiny.”²²
30. According to Ms. Clifford’s complaint, the nondisclosure agreement, as drafted, was between three parties, Ms. Clifford (using the alias Peggy Peterson), Essential Consultants LLC and Donald J. Trump (using the alias David Dennison). The agreement “imposed various conditions and obligations not only on Ms. Clifford, but also on Mr. Trump” and the agreement “required the signatures of all parties to the agreement, including that of Mr. Trump.”²³

On or about October 28, 2016, only days before the election, two of the parties signed the Hush Agreement—Ms. Clifford and Mr. Cohen (on behalf of [Essential Consultants LLC]). Mr. Trump, however, did not sign the agreement, thus rendering it legally null and void and of no consequence. On information and belief, despite having detailed knowledge of the Hush Agreement and its terms, including the proposed payment of monies to Ms. Clifford and the routing of those monies through [Essential Consultants LLC], Mr. Trump purposely did not sign the agreement so he could later, if need be, publicly disavow any knowledge of the Hush Agreement and Ms. Clifford.²⁴

31. Ms. Clifford’s complaint explains that, under Rule 1.4 of New York Rules of Professional Conduct governing attorneys, Mr. Cohen was required “at all times to promptly communicate all material information relating to the [nondisclosure agreement] to Mr. Trump” and to “reasonably consult with [Mr. Trump] about the means by which [his] objectives are to be accomplished” and to “keep [Mr. Trump] reasonably informed about the status of the matter.”²⁵

Accordingly, unless Mr. Cohen flagrantly violated his ethical obligations and the most basic rules governing his license to practice law (which is highly unlikely), there can be no doubt that Mr. Trump at all times has been fully aware of the negotiations with Ms. Clifford, the existence and terms of the Hush Agreement, the payment of the $130,000.00, the use of [Essential Consultants LLC] as a conduit, and the recent attempts to intimidate and silence Ms. Clifford by way of the bogus arbitration proceeding.²⁶

32. On March 9, 2018, NBC News reported that Ms. Clifford’s attorney had provided the news outlet with an email showing that Mr. Cohen used his Trump Organization corporate email, not his personal email account, to communicate with First Republic Bank to arrange the $130,000 payment to Ms. Clifford through Essential Consultants LLC.²⁷
33. On March 9, 2018, Mr. Cohen reportedly explained the October 2016 financial transaction to ABC News as follows: “I transferred money from one account at [my] bank into my LLC and then wired said funds to Ms. Clifford’s attorney in Beverly Hills, California” and that “the funds were taken from my home equity line and transferred internally to my LLC account in the same bank.”²⁸

SUMMARY OF THE LAW

“CONTRIBUTION” AND “EXPENDITURE” DEFINITIONS AND RESTRICTIONS

34. The term “contribution” is defined in FECA to mean “any gift, subscription, loan, advance, or deposit of money or anything of value made by any person for the purpose of influencing any election for Federal office.” 52 U.S.C. § 30101(8)(A)(i) (emphasis added); see also 11 C.F.R. §§ 100.51–100.56.
35. As used in the definition of “contribution,” the phrase “anything of value” includes “all in-kind contributions.” The “provision of any goods or services without charge or at a charge that is less than the usual and normal charge for such goods or services is a contribution.” 11 C.F.R. § 100.52(d)(1).
36. The term “expenditure” is defined in FECA to mean “any purchase, payment, distribution, loan, advance, deposit, or gift or money or anything of value, made by any person for the purpose of influencing any election for Federal office.” 52 U.S.C. § 30101(9)(A)(i) (emphasis added); see also 11 C.F.R. §§ 100.110–100.114.
37. As used in the definition of “expenditure,” the phrase “anything of value” includes “all in-kind contributions.” The “provision of any goods or services without charge or at a charge that is less than the usual and normal charge for such goods or services is an expenditure.” 11 C.F.R. § 100.111(e)(1).

38. FECA limits to $2,700 per election the amount of a contribution that a person can make to a federal candidate. 52 U.S.C § 30116(a)(1).²⁹
39. FECA prohibits a corporation or labor union from making a contribution to a federal candidate and prohibits a candidate from accepting or receiving a contribution from a corporation or labor union. 52 U.S.C. § 30118(a).
40. Commission regulation makes clear that the prohibition on corporate contributions includes a prohibition on the use of corporate resources to facilitate the making of contributions:

Corporations and labor organizations (including officers, directors or other representatives acting as agents of corporations and labor organizations) are prohibited from facilitating the making of contributions to candidates or political committees Facilitation means using corporate or labor organization resources or facilities to engage in fundraising activities in connection with any federal election[.]

11 C.F.R. § 114.2(f)(1).³⁰

41. Commission regulation provides that a contribution by a limited liability company (LLC) that elects to be treated as a partnership by the Internal Revenue Service shall be considered a partnership for the purpose of the FECA contribution limits. 11 C.F.R. § 110.1(g)(2). An LLC that elected to be treated as a corporation by the Internal Revenue Service shall be considered a corporation for the purpose of the FECA corporate contribution prohibition. 11 C.F.R. § 110.1(g)(3).

²⁹ The statutory limits are $2,000 and $25,000, respectively, and are indexed for inflation in odd-numbered years. See 52 U.S.C. § 30116(c); see also FEC, “Price Index Adjustments for Contribution and Expenditure Limitations and Lobbyist Bundling Disclosure Threshold,” 80 Fed. Reg. 5750, 5752, February 3, 2015 (adjusting contribution limit to $2,700 for 2015-16 election cycle), available at https://transition.fec.gov/law/cfr/ej_compilation/2015/notice2015-01.pdf.

³⁰ Commission regulation exempts from the definition of “contribution” certain uncompensated Internet activities, including “sending or forwarding electronic messages.” See 11 C.F.R. § 100.94.

42. Generally, federal candidates may make “unlimited expenditures from personal funds.” 11 C.F.R. § 100.10.
43. When a federal candidate receives a contribution or makes any disbursement in connection with her campaign, the candidate “shall be considered as having received such contribution . . . or made such disbursement as an agent of his or her authorized committee(s).” 11 C.F.R. § 101.2(a); see also 11 C.F.R. §§ 102.7(d), 109.3(b) and 300.2(b).
44. Candidates and political committees are prohibited from knowingly accepting any contribution or making any expenditure in violation of federal law. 11 C.F.R. § 110.9. Similarly, officers and employees of political committees are prohibited from knowingly accepting a contribution made for the benefit or use of a candidate, or making any expenditure on behalf of a candidate, in violation of any limitation imposed on contributions and expenditures. 11 C.F.R. § 110.9.

COORDINATED SPENDING

45. Any expenditure “made by any person in cooperation, consultation, or concert, with, or at the request or suggestion of, a candidate, his authorized political committees, or their agents” is considered a contribution to such candidate. 52 U.S.C. 30116(a)(7)(B)(i).
46. Similarly, any expenditure made by any person, other than a candidate or candidate's committee, “in cooperation, consultation, or concert with, or at the request or suggestion of, a national, State, or local committee of a political party” is considered a contribution to such party committee. 52 U.S.C. 30116(a)(7)(B)(ii).

47. “Coordinated” means made in cooperation, consultation or concert with, or at the request or suggestion of, a candidate, a candidate's authorized committee or an agent thereof. 11 C.F.R. § 109.20(a). Any expenditure that is “coordinated” with a candidate or political party committee, but that is not made for a “coordinated communication” under 11 C.F.R. § 109.21, is an in-kind contribution to the “candidate or political party committee with whom or with which it was coordinated and must be reported as an expenditure made by that candidate or political party committee” unless otherwise exempted. 11 C.F.R. § 109.20(b) (emphasis added).

48. In its 2003 Explanation and Justification for 11 C.F.R. § 109.20, the Commission made clear that, whereas coordinated expenditures for communications—i.e., political ads—are regulated by 11 C.F.R. § 109.21, coordinated expenditures for things other than political ads are regulated by 11 C.F.R. § 109.20. The Commission explained:

One commenter asserted that only express advocacy communications can constitute coordination, and urged the Commission to provide explicitly that non-communication expenditures will not be considered to be coordination. The Commission disagrees with the commenter’s assertion because Congress has not so limited the statutory provisions relating to coordination.³¹

49. Commission regulations provide that “agent” means “any person who has actual authority, either express or implied,” to engage in campaign spending and other specified campaign-related activities. See 11 C.F.R. §§ 109.3 and 300.2(b).

REPORTING AND DISCLOSURE REQUIREMENTS

50. The authorized committee of a candidate for federal office must report to the Commission the identification of each person who makes a contribution to the committee with an aggregate value in excess of $200 within an election cycle. 52 U.S.C. § 30104(b)(3)(A).
51. The authorized committee of a candidate for federal office must report as a designated category of receipt “contributions from the candidate.” 11 C.F.R. § 104.3(a)(3)(ii).
52. The authorized committee of a candidate for federal office must report to the Commission the name and address of each person to whom an expenditure in an aggregate amount in excess of $200 within the calendar year is made by the committee. 52 U.S.C. § 30104(b)(5)(A).
53. Expenditures of a candidate’s personal funds must be reported to the Commission as in-kind contributions to the candidate’s campaign. See, e.g., FEC Advisory Opinion 1990-09.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

9. Ms. Clifford began an intimate relationship with Mr. Trump in the Summer of 2006 in Lake Tahoe and continued her relationship with Mr. Trump well into the year 2007. This relationship included, among other things, at least one “meeting” with Mr. Trump in a bungalow at the Beverly Hills Hotel located within Los Angeles County.

10. In 2015, Mr. Trump announced his candidacy for President of the United States.

11. On July 19, 2016, Mr. Trump secured the Republican Party nomination for President.

12. On October 7, 2016, the Washington Post published a video, now infamously known as the Access Hollywood Tape, depicting Mr. Trump making lewd remarks about women. In it, Mr. Trump described his attempt to seduce a married woman and how he may start kissing a woman that he and his companion were about to meet. He then added: “I don’t even wait. And when you’re a star, they let you do it, you can do anything . . .”

13. Within days of the publication of the Access Hollywood Tape, several women came forward publicly to tell their personal stories about their sexual encounters with Mr. Trump.

14. Around this time, Ms. Clifford likewise sought to share details concerning her relationship and encounters with Mr. Trump with various media outlets.

15. As a result of Ms. Clifford’s efforts aimed at publicly disclosing her story and her communications with various media outlets, Ms. Clifford’s plans came to the attention of Mr. Trump and his campaign, including Mr. Michael Cohen, an attorney licensed in the State of New York. Mr. Cohen worked as the “top attorney” at the Trump Organization from 2007 until after the election and presently serves as Mr. Trump’s personal attorney. He is also generally referred to as Mr. Trump’s “fixer.”

16. After discovering Ms. Clifford’s plans, Mr. Trump, with the assistance of his attorney Mr. Cohen, aggressively sought to silence Ms. Clifford as part of an effort to avoid her telling the truth, thus helping to ensure he won the Presidential Election. Mr. Cohen subsequently prepared a draft non-disclosure agreement and presented it to Ms. Clifford and her attorney (the “Hush Agreement”). Ms. Clifford at the time was represented by counsel in California whose office is located in Beverly Hills, California within the County of Los Angeles.

1 17. The parties named in the Hush Agreement were Ms. Clifford, Mr. Trump, and Essential
2 Consultants LLC. As noted above, Essential Consultants LLC ("EC") was formed on October 17,
3 2016, just weeks before the 2016 presidential election. On information and belief, EC was created by 4 Mr. Cohen with Mr. Trump's knowledge for one purpose – to hide the true source of funds to be used
5 to pay Ms. Clifford, thus further insulating Mr. Trump from later discovery and scrutiny.

6 18. By design of Mr. Cohen, the Hush Agreement used aliases to refer to Ms. Clifford and 7 Mr. Trump. Specifically, Ms. Clifford was referred to by the alias "Peggy Peterson" or "PP." Mr.
8 Trump, on the other hand, was referred to by the alias "David Dennison" or "DD."

9 19. Attached hereto as Exhibit 1 is a true and correct copy of the Hush Agreement, titled 10 Confidential Settlement Agreement and Mutual Release; Assignment of Copyright and Non-11 Disparagement [sic] Agreement. Exhibit 1 is incorporated herein by this reference and made a part of 12 this Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

13 20. Attached hereto as Exhibit 2 is a true and correct copy of the draft Side Letter
14 Agreement, which was Exhibit A to the Hush Agreement. Exhibit 2 is incorporated herein by this 15 reference and made a part of this Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

16 21. Importantly, the Hush Agreement imposed various conditions and obligations not only 17 on Ms. Clifford, but also on Mr. Trump. The agreement also required the signature of all parties to the 18 agreement, including that of Mr. Trump. Moreover, as is customary, it was widely understood at all
19 times that unless all of the parties signed the documents as required, the Hush Agreement, together
20 with all of its terms and conditions, was null and void.

21 22. On or about October 28, 2016, only days before the election, two of the parties signed
22 the Hush Agreement - Ms. Clifford and Mr. Cohen (on behalf of EC). Mr. Trump, however, did not 23 sign the agreement, thus rendering it legally null and void and of no consequence. On information and 24 belief, despite having detailed knowledge of the Hush Agreement and its terms, including the 25 proposed payment of monies to Ms. Clifford and the routing of those monies through EC, Mr. Trump 26 purposely did not sign the agreement so he could later, if need be, publicly disavow any knowledge of 27 the Hush Agreement and Ms. Clifford.

1 23. Despite Mr. Trump's failure to sign the Hush Agreement, Mr. Cohen proceeded to 2 cause $130,000.00 to be wired to the trust account of Ms. Clifford's attorney. He did so even though
3 there was no legal agreement and thus no written nondisclosure agreement whereby Ms. Clifford was 4 restricted from disclosing the truth about Mr. Trump.

5 24. Mr. Trump was elected President of the United States on November 8, 2016.

6 25. In January 2018, certain details of the draft Hush Agreement emerged in the news
7 media, including, among other things, the existence of the draft agreement, the parties to the draft
8 agreement, and the $130,000.00 payment provided for under the draft agreement. Also in January
9 2018, and concerned the truth would be disclosed, Mr. Cohen, through intimidation and coercive
10 tactics, forced Ms. Clifford into signing a false statement wherein she stated that reports of her 11 relationship with Mr. Trump were false.

12 26. On or about February 13, 2018, Mr. Cohen issued a public statement regarding Ms.
13 Clifford, the existence of the Hush Agreement, and details concerning the Hush Agreement. He did so 14 without any consent by Ms. Clifford, thus evidencing Mr. Cohen's apparent position (at least in that 15 context) that no binding agreement was in place. Among other things, Mr. Cohen stated: "In a private 16 transaction in 2016, I used my own personal funds to facilitate a payment of $130,000 to Ms.
17 Stephanie Clifford. Neither the Trump Organization nor the Trump campaign was a party to the 18 transaction with Ms. Clifford, and neither reimbursed me for the payment, either directly or 19 indirectly." Mr. Cohen concluded his statement with lawyer speak: "Just because something isn't 20 true doesn't mean that it can't cause you harm or damage. I will always protect Mr. Trump."
21 (emphasis added).

22 27. Importantly, at no time did Mr. Cohen claim Ms. Clifford did not have an intimate 23 relationship with Mr. Trump. Indeed, were he to make such a statement, it would be patently false.

24 28. Because the agreement was never formed and/or is null and void, no contractual 25 obligations were imposed on any of the parties to the agreement, including any obligations to keep 26 information confidential. Moreover, to the extent any such obligations did exist, they were breached
27 and/or excused by Mr. Cohen and his public statements to the media.

28

1 29. To be clear, the attempts to intimidate Ms. Clifford into silence and “shut her up” in 2 order to “protect Mr. Trump” continue unabated. For example, only days ago on or about February
3 27, 2018, Mr. Trump’s attorney Mr. Cohen surreptitiously initiated a bogus arbitration proceeding
4 against Ms. Clifford in Los Angeles. Remarkably, he did so without even providing Ms. Clifford with 5 notice of the proceeding and basic due process.

6 30. Put simply, considerable steps have been taken by Mr. Cohen in the last week to 7 silence Ms. Clifford through the use of an improper and procedurally defective arbitration proceeding
8 hidden from public view. The extent of Mr. Trump’s involvement in these efforts is presently 9 unknown, but it strains credibility to conclude that Mr. Cohen is acting on his own accord without the 10 express approval and knowledge of his client Mr. Trump.

11 31. Indeed, Rule 1.4 of New York Rules of Professional Conduct governing attorneys has 12 required Mr. Cohen at all times to promptly communicate all material information relating to the 13 matter to Mr. Trump, including but not limited to “any decision or circumstance with respect to which 14 [Mr. Trump’s] informed consent [was] required” and “material developments in the matter including 15 settlement or plea offers.” Moreover, this same Rule required Mr. Cohen at all times to “reasonably 16 consult with [Mr. Trump] about the means by which [his] objectives are to be accomplished” and to 17 “keep [Mr. Trump] reasonably informed about the status of the matter.”

18 32. Accordingly, unless Mr. Cohen flagrantly violated his ethical obligations and the most 19 basic rules governing his license to practice law (which is highly unlikely), there can be no doubt that 20 Mr. Trump at all times has been fully aware of the negotiations with Ms. Clifford, the existence and 21 terms of the Hush Agreement, the payment of the $130,000.00, the use of EC as a conduit, and the 22 recent attempts to intimidate and silence Ms. Clifford by way of the bogus arbitration proceeding.

23 33. Because there was never a valid agreement and thus, no agreement to arbitrate, any 24 subsequent order obtained by Mr. Cohen and/or Mr. Trump in arbitration is of no consequence or 25 effect.

1 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

2 Declaratory Relief

3 (Against all Defendants)

4 34. Plaintiff restates and re-alleges each and every allegation in Paragraphs 1 through 33
5 above as if fully set forth herein.

6 35. This action concerns the legal significance, if any, of the documents attached hereto as 7 Exhibit 1, entitled Confidential Settlement Agreement and Mutual Release; Assignment of Copyright
8 and Non-Disparagant [sic] Agreement, and Exhibit 2, entitled Side Letter Agreement.

9 36. California Code of Civil Procedure section 1060 authorizes declaratory relief for any 10 person who desires a declaration of rights or duties with respect to one another. In cases of actual 11 controversy relating to the legal rights and duties of the respective parties, such a person may seek a 12 judicial declaration of his or her rights and duties relative to an instrument or contract, or alleged 13 contract, including a determination of any question of construction or validity arising under the 14 instrument or contract, or alleged contract. This includes a determination of whether a contract was 15 ever formed.

16 37. An actual controversy exists between Plaintiff and Defendants as to their rights and 17 duties to each other. Accordingly, a declaration is necessary and proper at this time.

18 38. Specifically, Plaintiff seeks an order of this Court declaring that the agreements in the 19 forms set out in Exhibits 1 and 2 between Plaintiff and Defendants were never formed, and therefore 20 do not exist, because, among other things, Mr. Trump never signed the agreements. Nor did Mr.
21 Trump provide any other valid consideration. He thus never assented to the duties, obligations, and 22 conditions the agreements purportedly imposed upon him. Plaintiff contends that, as a result, she is 23 not bound by any of the duties, obligations, or conditions set forth in Exhibits 1 and 2. Moreover, as a 24 further result, there is no agreement to arbitrate between the parties.

25 39. In the alternative, Plaintiff seeks an order of this Court declaring that the agreements in 26 the forms set out in Exhibits 1 and 2 are invalid, unenforceable, and/or void under the doctrine of 27 unconscionability. Plaintiff contends that, as a result, she is not bound by any of the duties,
28

1 obligations, or conditions set forth in Exhibits 1 and 2. Moreover, as a further result, there is n
2 agreement to arbitrate between the parties.

3 40. In the further alternative, Plaintiff seeks an order of this Court declaring that the 4 agreements in the forms set out in Exhibits 1 and 2 are invalid, unenforceable, and/or void because
5 they are illegal and/or violate public policy. Plaintiff contends that, as a result, she is not bound by 6 any of the duties, obligations, or conditions set forth in Exhibits 1 and 2. Moreover, as a further result,
7 there is no agreement to arbitrate between the parties.

8 41. Defendants dispute these contentions.

9 42. Accordingly, Ms. Clifford desires a judicial determination of her rights and duties with 10 respect to the alleged agreements in the forms set out in Exhibits 1 and 2.

11
12 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

13 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Defendants, and each of them, declaring
14 that no agreement was formed between the parties, or in the alternative, to the extent an agreement
15 was formed, it is void, invalid, or otherwise unenforceable.

16
17 ON THE FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

18 1. For a judgment declaring that no agreement was formed between the parties, or in the 19 alternative, to the extent an agreement was formed, it is void, invalid, or otherwise unenforceable.

20 2. For costs of suit; and

21 3. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

representations and warranties made by PP herein and the execution by her of the Assignment & Transfer of Copyright are at the essence of this Settlement Agreement and are a material inducement to DD's entry into this Agreement, absent which DD would not enter into this Agreement. DD expects and requires that PP never communicate with him or his family for any reason whatsoever.

2.5 The Parties wish to avoid the time, expense, and inconvenience of potential litigation, and to resolve any and all disputes and potential legal claims which exist or may exist between them, as of the date of this Agreement including but not limited to the PP Claims and/or the DD Claims. The Parties agree that the claims released include but are not limited to DD's Claims against PP as relates to PP having allowed, whether intentionally, unintentionally or negligently, anyone else other than those listed in section 4.2 herein below to become aware of the existence of and content of the Property, to have gained possession of the Property, and to PP's having allegedly engaged in efforts to disclose, disseminate and/or commercially exploit the Images and/or Property and/or Confidential Information, and any harm suffered by DD therefrom. The Parties agree that the claims released include but are not limited to PP's Claims against DD as relates to DD having allowed, whether intentionally, unintentionally or negligently, anyone else to have interfered with PP's right to privacy or any other right that PP may possess.

2.6 These Recitals are essential, integral and material terms of this Agreement, and this Agreement shall be construed with respect thereto. The Parties enter into this Agreement in consideration of the promises, covenants and conditions set forth herein, and for good and valuable consideration, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged. It is an essential element of this Settlement Agreement that the Parties shall never directly or indirectly communicate with each other or attempt to contact their respective families. This matter, the existence of this Settlement Agreement and its terms are strictly confidential.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Parties adopt the foregoing recitals as a statement of their intent and in consideration of the promises and covenants contained herein, and further agree as follows:

PP

4.3.4 Any direct or indirect disclosure of Confidential Information or Tangible and/or Intangible Confidential information created by or relating to DD to any Third Party by PP and/or any of her representatives, heirs, agents, children, family members, relatives, confidants, advisors, employees, attorneys, transferors, transferees, successors or assigns, and/or any friend of any of PP (collectively "PP Group"), after the date of this Agreement, shall be deemed a disclosure by PP in breach of the terms of this Agreement, entitling the non-breaching Party to all rights and remedies set forth herein.

4.3.5 PP separately and further warrants and represent that, prior to entering into this Agreement, that she has not written, published, caused to be published, or authorized the writing, publication, broadcast, transmission or public dissemination of any interview, article, essay, book, memoir, story, photograph, film, script, Images tape, biography, documentary, whether written, oral, digital or visual, whether fictionalized or not, about the opposing Party to this Agreement or their family, whether truthful, laudatory, defamatory, disparaging, deprecating or neutral, which discloses any Confidential Information and/or which includes any description or depiction of any kind whatsoever whether fictionalized or not, about any Party to this agreement or their respective family, other than as expressly disclosed by PP hereto in writing and as set forth herein in paragraph 4.2 above.

PP further warrants and represents that PP has not and will not enter into any written or oral agreement with any third party purportedly requiring or obligating PP to do so. For greater clarity PP will never discuss with anyone the contents of this Settlement Agreement, nor will she voluntarily confirm the existence of this Settlement Agreement.

4.4 Disclosure Of Confidential Information Is Prohibited: The Parties to this Agreement hereby recognize and agree that substantial effort and expense have been dedicated to limit the efforts of the press, other media, and the public to learn of personal and business affairs involving DD. PP further acknowledges that any future disclosure of Confidential Information to any Third Party would constitute a serious and material breach of the terms of this Agreement, and shall constitute a breach of trust and confidence, invasion of privacy, and a misappropriation of exclusive property rights, and may also constitute fraud and deceit. Some of the Confidential Information may also constitute and include proprietary business information and trade secrets which have independent economic value. The Parties hereto acknowledge that any unauthorized use, dissemination or disclosure of Confidential Information, or the fabrication and dissemination of false and/or misleading information, about DD would result in irreparable injury to him, and would be injurious to a reasonable person, and/or would constitute an injurious violation of the right of privacy or publicity, and/or would be injurious to his business, profession, person, family and/or career. The Parties acknowledge that substantial and valuable property rights and other proprietary interests in the exclusive possession, ownership and use of Confidential Information, and recognizes and acknowledges that such Confidential Information is a proprietary, valuable, special and unique asset which belongs to DD and to which the PP has no claim of ownership or other interest.

PP

4.4.1 Disclosures Permitted By PP. Notwithstanding the foregoing, PP shall only be permitted to disclose Confidential Information to another person or entity only if compelled to do so by valid legal process, including without limitation a subpoena duces tecum or similar legal compulsion, provided that PP shall not make any such disclosure unless PP has first provided DD with notice of such order or legal process not less than ten (10) days in advance of the required date of disclosure pursuant to the Written Notice provisions set forth hereinbelow, providing DD with an opportunity to intervene and with full and complete cooperation should she choose to oppose such disclosure. PP agrees that if the valid legal process can be stopped by her consent or at her behest then PP shall agree to use best efforts to avoid the disclosure of the Confidential Information.

5.0 REMEDIES

5.1 DD's Remedies for Breach of Agreement. Each breach or threatened breach (e.g., conduct by PP reflecting that said person intends to breach the Agreement), including without limitation by breach of any representation or warranty, by failing to deliver to DD all tangible Property as required, by the disclosure or threatened disclosure of any Confidential Information to any Third Party by PP (herein "Prohibited Communication"), or otherwise, shall render PP liable to DD for any and all damages and injuries incurred as a result thereof, including but not limited to the following, all of which rights and remedies shall be cumulative:

5.1.1 Disgorgement of Monies: In the event an Arbitrator determines there has been a breach or threatened breach of this Agreement by PP, PP shall be obligated to account to, and to disgorge and turn over to DD any and all monies, profits, or other consideration, or benefits, which PP, or anyone on PP's behalf or at PP's direction, directly or indirectly derive from any disclosure or exploitation of any of the Confidential Information; and

5.1.2 Liquidated Damages: PP agrees that any breach or violation of this Settlement Agreement by either of PP individually or the PP Group by his/her/their unauthorized disclosure of any of the Confidential Information (as defined in paragraphs 4.1(a), (b), (c), and (d)) to any Third Party, and/or any unauthorized exploitation or prohibited use of the same, and/or by the breach of and/or by any false representations and warranties set forth in this Agreement, and/or any public disparagement of DD by PP (collectively, the "LD Breach Terms"), shall result in substantial damages and injury to DD, the precise amount of which would be extremely difficult or impracticable to determine, even after the Parties have made a reasonable endeavor to estimate fair compensation for such potential losses and damages to DD. Therefore, in addition to disgorgement of the full amount of all monies or other consideration pursuant to paragraph 5.1.2, in the event an Arbitrator determines there has been a breach of the LD Breach Terms of this Agreement by PP individually or the PP Group, PP shall also be obligated to pay, and agree to pay to DD the sum of One-Million Dollars ($1,000,000.00 as a reasonable and fair amount of liquidated damages to compensate DD for any loss or damage resulting from each breach, it being understood that the Liquidated damages calculation is on a per item basis. The Parties agree that such sum bears a reasonable and proximate relationship to the actual damages which DD will or might suffer from each breach of the terms of this Agreement and that this amount is not a penalty. Alternatively, at DD's sole discretion, DD may seek to recover actual damages proximately caused by each such breach, according to proof. Any other breaches not a LD Breach Terms shall be subject to a claim for actual damages according to proof; furthermore, any monies held in Trust by PP's Attorney shall be frozen and shall not be disbursed to PP until the Arbitrator finally resolves the allegation of Breach.

5.1.3 Injunctive Relief. PP acknowledges and agrees that any unauthorized disclosure to Third Parties of any Confidential Information will cause irreparable harm to DD, which damages and injuries will most likely not be measurable or susceptible to calculation. PP further acknowledges and agrees that any breach or threatened breach of this Agreement due to the unauthorized disclosure or threatened disclosure by PP to Third Parties, of any Confidential Information shall entitle DD to immediately obtain, either from the Arbitrator and/ or from any other court of competent jurisdiction, an ex parte issuance of a restraining order and preliminary injunction or other similar relief (herein "Injunctive Relief") without advance notice to any of PP, preventing the disclosure or any further disclosure of Confidential Information protected by the terms hereof, pending the decision of the Arbitrator or Court. The Parties further acknowledge and agree that in connection with any such proceeding, any Party may obtain from the Court or Arbitrator on an ex parte application or noticed motion without opposition, an order sealing the file in any such proceeding, and the Parties stipulate to the factual and legal basis for issuance of an order sealing the file in any such proceedings. The rights and remedies set forth in this Injunctive Relief Section are without prejudice to any other rights or remedies, legal or equitable, that the Parties may have as a result of any breach of this Agreement.

5.2 Dispute Resolution. In recognition of the mutual benefits to DD and PP of a voluntary system of alternative dispute resolution which involves binding confidential arbitration of all disputes which may arise between them, it is their intention and agreement that any and all claims or controversies arising between DD on the one hand, and PP on the other hand, shall be resolved by binding confidential Arbitration to the greatest extent permitted by law. Arbitration shall take place before JAMS ENDISPUTE ("JAMS") pursuant to JAMS Comprehensive Arbitration Rules and Procedures (including Interim Measures) ("JAMS Rules") and the law selected by DD, (such selection shall be limited to either, California, Nevada or Arizona), or before ACTION DISPUTE RESOLUTION SERVICES ("ADRS") pursuant to the ADRS Rules (including Interim Measures) and the law selected by DD (whichever the claimant elects upon filing an arbitration), in a the location selected by DD, and will be heard and decided by a sole, neutral arbitrator ("Arbitrator") selected either by agreement of the Parties, or if the Parties are unable to agree, then selected under the Rules of the selected arbitration service. The costs and fees associated with any Arbitrator and/or Arbitration service shall be split equally among the parties to any such dispute. The Parties shall have the right to conduct discovery in accordance with the California Code of Civil Procedure Section 1283.05 et. seq. or any similar provision existing in the jurisdiction selected by DD and the written discovery requests and results of discovery shall be deemed to constitute Confidential Information. The Arbitrator shall have the right to impose all legal and equitable remedies that would be available to any Party before any governmental dispute resolution forum or court of competent jurisdiction, including without limitation temporary, preliminary and permanent injunctive relief, compensatory damages, liquidated damages, accounting, disgorgement, specific performance, attorneys fees and costs,

Each of the Parties understands, acknowledges and agrees that by agreeing to arbitration as provided herein, each of the Parties is giving up any right that he/she/it may have to a trial by judge or jury with regard to the matters which are required to be submitted to mandatory and binding Arbitration pursuant to the terms hereof. Each of the Parties further understands, acknowledges and agrees that there is no right to an appeal or a review of an Arbitrator's award as there would be a right of appeal or review of a judge or jury's decision.
